On December 20, 2022 residents of Avondale Resource Center for seniors had the opportunity to meet author Sekou Dukuly during a book signing event. Sekou, who is also a Vice President of Projectkiks, and community leader, had recently released his memoir, "Mandingo Man in America" book and was excited to share his story with the seniors.

The event was held in the community room of the center, where Sekou was greeted with warm applause as he entered into the room. He began by speaking about his book, which details his experiences as a humanitarian leader in a low-income community and how he eventually rose to become a successful leader. He also shared some personal anecdotes and advice on how to overcome obstacles and achieve one's goals.

They asked about his journey to leadership, his experience as a Vice President, and his thoughts on community development. The event was a great success and the residents were delighted to have the opportunity to meet Sekou in person. The center's staff was thrilled with the turnout and the impact Sekou's visit had on their residents. It was an inspiring and uplifting experience for everyone in attendance

ALPHA OMEGA HAIR

"AOH BEAUTY" hair salon, owned by Dr. Shuntay Smith, held a free haircut event specifically for senior citizens. The event was a huge success, with a steady stream of seniors coming in throughout the day to take advantage of the free haircuts. Dr. Shuntay and her team of stylists were on hand to provide haircuts, trims, and styling services to the seniors. Many of the attendees were thrilled to have their hair done and were full of praise for Dr. Shuntay and her team for their kindness and skill. The event was not only a way for the seniors to freshen up their appearance but also a way for them to socialize and interact with people from the community. This event shows Dr. Shuntay's dedication to provide high-quality services to her community and not just focus on profit.

AVONDALE SENIORS

The seniors were delighted in receiving free haircuts and to attend Sekou Dukuly's book signing event and felt inspired by his story of leadership and overcoming obstacles. Many of them purchased copies of the book, had it signed by the author and shared with their friends and family. They left the event feeling uplifted and motivated by Sekou's message and his journey to leadership.

Senior's Director Ms Doris Supports Sekou Dukuly's Book Signing

Ms Doris is dedicated to providing support and resources to the elderly population. She is constantly seeking out new ways to engage and empower the seniors, and is always available to listen to their concerns and suggestions. She is passionate about improving the lives of older adults and works tirelessly to create programs and activities that meet their unique needs. She understands that seniors are an important part of the community and deserve to be treated with dignity and respect.
