PROJECT KIKS CONDUCTS ANNUAL FOOD DISTRIBUTION

Sponsored By: SHARKY'S

On July 1, 2023, Country Director, Abraham Jagba, distributed food supplies to the village of BUNBONG, which is located in Northern Ghana, between Yendi and Gushegu, along the Eastern Corridor. Our Tribe are known as the Koomba's (Bikoom). Koomba, or Konkombas is spoken as the tribal language. King Wumbei Dawuni is the current ruler. Toby and Bonnie Tayeh were bestowed African names by the village, with the blessings of King Wumbei. Toby was named "Munkpeen" and Bonnie is "Tilijortob". The Tribe wishes to express their gratitude for the contributions and donations to the village, which has helped to prevent hunger and starvation. We pray for your long-life and for the lives of the entire Tayeh family and village.

PROJECT KIKS CELEBRATES LIBERIA INDEPENDENCE DAY

Sponsored By: The HARMONY CLUB

On July 26, 1847, Liberia declared their independence from the American Colonization Society & the United States of America, July 26, 2023 marks 176 years of Freedom. Our annual celebration consists of providing food, water and a party for the children of LPRC Roan village. Special thanks to Rohan Hartigan and the Harmony Club, University High School, San Francisco, California for their donations which made this a successful event.

WELCOME TO AMERICA, SEKOU FOFANA

On July 26, 2023, Liberian Independence Day, Country Director Sekou Fofana landed on American soil to begin a new life in the USA. He will join his uncle and Vice President of Project KIKS, Sekou Dukuly in Mesa, Arizona. He leaves behind a great and profound legacy of dedicated service to his family, community and Country. Congratulations on a job well done, as you never missed a beat of the drum. Chief Nana Zawanah.
